Snaks and refreshments provided

In January 2019 a group of creative seniors from The Rockaways, Queens have started in CCNS Seaside Senior Center their Studio Practice with Polish-American visual artist Wojciech Gilewicz. Starting with drawing, technique of collage, watercolor and acrylic they finished up creating oil on canvas paintings. CCNS Seaside Senior Center would like to share with you their works of art as well as experiences they got through the past months of this extraordinary creative process.

 SU-CASA is a community art engagement program that places artists-in-residence at senior centers across the five boroughs of New York City founded by the New York City Council, NYC Department of Cultural Affairs, and NYC Department for the Aging. (www.nyc.gov/culture). The program in CCNS Seaside Senior Center is managed in partnership with Queens Council on the Arts. Additional support provided by Materials for the Arts.
